The election comes November 7.

The charges of forgery against John Feland, jr., were not sustained by the court.

The school teachers will "stick in a thumb and pull out a plum" about next Saturday.

Some of the candidates appear to have predilections for a "still hunt." As the election approaches, let us hope that nobody will take the other horn of the dilemma and "hunt a still."

Miss Mina Wheeler is making a fine impression wherever she speaks. Her style of speaking is charming, and then she has sensible things to say and says them in a sensible way.

Prospective candidates for Judge Bennett's place on the Appellate bench are plentiful, notwithstanding the election is more than a year off. As the old Judge is going into the fight again, the probabilities are that a majority of the aspirations will never get beyond the embryo state.

Of course Dr. Debo did not have time to make speeches over the district, being detained at home by the duties of his office. It is true that he spent a few days at the Caldwell county fair last week, but that was solely to see the big potatoes, the premium pumpkin, and the pretty swine and bovine used in the Superintendent's office.

According to the Russellville Herald-Enterprise John S. Rhea is not giving the Logan county Democratic nominee for the Legislature an enthusiastic support, because the nominee had not pledged against Lindsay for the Senate. Things do not always go as John wants them, but when the hard work of the home stretch of a campaign is to be done, John is all there.

Some days ago the Commissioner to whom the matter was referred reported that, instead of the Mason & Ford Co. owing the State, the State owed the Company several thousand dollars. The Franklin Circuit Court has heard the report of its Commissioner and adjusts matters different. The Court says the Company owes the State $14,000. The case now goes to the Court of Appeals.

Some of the physicians of the State are criticizing the arrangement for granting certificates entitling them to practice. There are about 3000 physicians in the State, and each must send $2.00 to Mr. Secretary McCord, before a certificate permitting them to practice is obtainable. Twice $2.00 amounts to $6000, and if properly written in this instance, it must be the popular $ as a prefix. What is to become of the $6000? It is to be used in enforcing the law. In most cases the officers of each county undertake the enforcement of the law, and a large per cent of the cost comes out of the pocket of those who violate the statutory provisions. This new order of things is very naturally attracting attention, and calls for a report showing how the money was spent. Of course, in due time, the Secretary of the State Board of Health will show where the money was very necessary to enforce the law.

Elder S. S. Beaver, of McAllisterville, Juniata Co., Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it, and was much pleased with the speedy relief afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary and found that it never fails. For sale by Moore & Co.

THE OLD SETTLERS

The Names of Those Who Broke the Primal Forest of Crittenden.

When They Come, Where They Settled.

EDITOR PRESS:—I promised that I would complete my contribution to your paper this week, "concerning the men who formed the county from a wilderness. My list is of course not complete. These are those I am unable to call to mind, or to learn of, but those I have mentioned should be remembered. No history of the county would be complete without them. While they are not all heroes in the modern sense, they had the hardihood to come to an unbroken wilderness, and the result of their coming is the proud old county of Crittenden.

The Wheelers, John, Henry and James came from South Carolina in 1796; John settled the place now owned by Frank Paris, and Henry settled the place known as the John M. Wilson farm in 1805; and in 1805, James Wheeler settled the place where his descendant, Isaac Wheeler now lives. All of the Wheelers were strict Presbyterians; they brought slaves with them.

Willis Rals from S. C., in 1806 settled near Aaron Towery's.

John Simpson, from South Carolina in 1802, settled on a part of the Aaron Towery farm, and sold it to William Babb, who came from North Carolina in 1806. Babb was a strong Baptist.

Wm Baldwin came from Virginia in 1804, settled near Piney Bluff.

Thos Bradburn, from North Carolina in 1806, settled on Tradewater.

John and Isaac Ferguson, from North Carolina in 1804, was what were then known as squatters.

Frederic Imboden came from Va., in 1802, and settled near where Aaron Towery lives.

James Walden from North Carolina in 1806.

John Lacey, from South Carolina in 1804, settled on Tradewater, near Henry Land's.

Edward Kemp, from South Carolina, settled on Piney near the iron bridge.

In 1795 Henry Land, came from North Carolina and settled where Justial Hood now lives.

Arther, Francis and John Travis came from South Carolina in 1800, settled what is now known as the Cullen Travis place. Arther was in the revolutionary war; John was a preacher and a doctor, and was the first man to preach Methodism in the county.

Grisson Coffield, from North Carolina in 1798, settled the place known as the Isaac Coffield farm.

Daniel, John, William, and Thomas Travis came from South Carolina in 1794, Daniel settled the place where Coppers Springs School House now stands; John settled the Geo Green place. Wm settled what is known as the Ham place.

Samuel Foster from South Carolina in 1805 settled the farm where Francis Jacobs lives.

John Blakely from South Carolina in 1800. He was a noted gun smith and afterwards did good service in the war of 1812.

Stephen Fowler came from South Carolina in 1802 or 3 and settled the place on Crooked Creek where James Fowler lived and died.

William, Solomon and Als Clark came in 1802 or 3, William was a revolutionary soldier. Als settled at the Salt Petre cave on Piney, and made powder.

Samuel, Ira and John Nunn came from South Carolina in 1801 or 2, John settled the place near where William Tudor lives. Samuel settled on Tradewater on the place now owned by Thomas Crider; Ira settled near what is now the poor house. They brought slaves with them.

Wm Stewart came from South Carolina between 1800 and 1806 and settled the place now owned by Gus Stewart; he was a revolutionary soldier.

Wm Cain came from South Carolina about the same time and settled where Jos Newcomb now lives.

Job Truitt came from South Carolina in 1803, and settled near the poor house farm; he was a revolutionary soldier.

Samuel Porter, from South Carolina in 1804, settled near Sugar Grove church.

Elijah Porter, from South Carolina in 1804, settled near where Repton now is; he brought slaves.

Wm Phillips from South Carolina in 1806, and settled the place where Eph Hill now lives. He built a horse mill, covered his house with shingles, fastened down with wooden pegs.

Robert and John Phillips came from South Carolina in 1806, and settled near what is now Nunn's Switch.

Elish Thurmond, from Virginia in 1804. He was one of the first tobacco raisers of the county.

James Ricy and David Hill, from North Carolina between 1791 and 1795. As they came the last house they saw, was the court house at Hopkinsville. Ricy built a cabin on the Wm Clement place, and Hill selected the place near Marion, now owned by E. W. Hill.

Wm Pickens from South Carolina between 1794 and 1798 settled near where Mike Gilbert now lives.

Robert Hillhouse came from South Carolina between 1794 and 1798.

Jas Love, Arthur Love came from South Carolina in 1804 and settled on Hurricane.

Tillman Hickman came from Delaware in 1804 and settled on Hurricane.

Jas Champion came in 1804.

Richard Minner, came from Maryland in 1804, and settled near the old iron furnace.

John Young came from South Carolina between 1803-6 and settled on Hurricane.

John Brents came about the same time.

Jas Price from North Carolina in 1802; he brought slaves.

Robert Livingston, from South Carolina in 1802.

Ingram Lucas from South Carolina 1803 or 4.

John Phillips came from South Carolina in 1804.

John Coram, Joseph Mosby, Ozark Kirk, John and James Mitchell, Isaac Ricks were among the settlers of the Hurricane section. The date of their coming I do not know.

In 1797—Wilson from South Carolina built the first mill in the county. It was near the mouth of Tradewater.

Geo Flynn came in 1791 and settled where Weston now stands, erected a ferry and had a road cut out to Hopkinsville in 1803.

Jas Brantley came from Georgia in 1812.

Wm Dickey from South Carolina in 1800. The first church built in the county was known as Dickey Springs. It was a Presbyterian church. The next church was built at Crooked Creek by the Presbyterians and they afterwards sold out to the Baptist.

Wm Hale from South Carolina in 1808.

James Dawson from S. C., in 1808. He was the first distiller in the county. He erected his still on Piney. Wm Hill owned the second at the place known as Cedar Lane.

John Elder from N. C., in 1790 and settled two miles south of Marion.

A BIG FIND.

Ex-Senator Willis Machin Dies in the Asylum at Hopkinsville.

A Woman Indicted, a Head Cut Off, an All Night Meeting.

A Big Find.

Mr. Oscar Leith, a prosperous farmer residing near Laketon, Carlisle county, while searching upon the banks of the Mississippi river near his farm for some missing cows a few days since spied upon the bank a few feet distant a partly concealed earthenware jar, the top only being visible. Thinking it rather peculiar place for a jar he stooped to examine it and was astonished to find it very heavy. After forcing the top off he found that it was filled with money—gold, silver and bank notes. After counting it he learned that the contents of the jar amounted to exactly $3,800, which he carried home and deposited in a bank a few days later.

It is thought by some that the money is the same that was stolen from an express car which was robbed a few months ago near the place where the money was found, the robbers securing about $4,000.

As usual there are doubting Thomases who are disposed to laugh at the idea of such an amount of money being found by Mr. Leith, but as the gentleman bears a good reputation and has always been known to tell the truth, these are few.

An Event of the Times.

The consecration of the new Catholic church on the 11th of October will be an event in the annals of the history of Uniontown and Union county. Possibly not in this generation will another edifice of its beauty and proportions be built. Of course our Catholic friends are justly proud of their grand undertaking and as for that, every citizen in Uniontown, whether he be protestant or otherwise is proud of this noble structure. Let every one turn out, we hope to see and expect to see thousands of people here on the 11th. Throw open your doors to the visitors and make them feel at home. The barbecue will be gotten up on a large scale and not less than one hundred carcasses will be skewed and cooked by experts who will use their best efforts to make the meats perfection.—Union Local.

Almost Cut His Head Off.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 29.—News has been received here in regard to a brutal cutting affray resulting in death that took place at Robert's, a station on the Ohio Valley railroad, west of this city. James Southers and John Chapman, a tenant, went out with their teams to haul tobacco, when a dispute arose over the ownership of a pair of check lines. Words led to blows, when Southers attacked Chapman with a knife, cutting his head almost off and dismembering him. Southers then escaped, and is still at large. Great excitement is reported from the scene of the murder.

Willis Machen Dead.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 29.—Ex-Senator Willis B. Machen died at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Western asylum, of exhaustion incident to extreme old age. He was in his eighty-fourth year and was committed to the asylum from Lyon county a few weeks ago. His health failed rapidly, and it had been decided to take him back to Eddyville to-morrow, to die surrounded by his friend. Mr. Machen never fully recovered from the effects of a severe attack of grippe last winter and it was to this that failure of his mind was attributed.

Protracted Services.

It is said there was a remarkable church service held at Kuttawa, Lyon county, a few evening since. Prayer meeting convened at 7 o'clock in the evening at the M. E. church and the service was continued through the entire night and until after daylight the following day. There was quite a congregation present and in some way all managed to keep awake. The night was spent in prayer and of the members relating their religious experience.—Paducah News.

Died in Livingston County.

Mrs. Mollie Grace, a highly esteemed lady of Pyle's Landing, Livingston county, died Friday morning of consumption at the age of 42. She was the daughter of Rev. Fawcett, a well known minister, formerly of this county, and leaves many friends and relatives to mourn her loss. The remains were buried yesterday afternoon at the Bodenheimer burial ground in Livingston county.

She Is Indicted.

Charity Brown, alias Eller, Bloomer and McNeal, who was arrested here on the 22nd of last month by Captain Collins, charged with committing arson by setting fire to a house in Elizabethtown, Ill., has been indicted by the grand jury at the last named place, and her bond fixed at $3000, which she furnished and it is stated that she intends to remove to Paducah but whether there is any truth in the report or not is not known.—Paducah Standard.

The Deadly Tetanus.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 29.—Dr. W. V. Cook, leading bacteriologist in this section, died this morning of lockjaw, the result of a cut with a piece of glass while experimenting. He was only about thirty years old. He married Miss King, of Corydon, Ky. He was interested in the building of a new private hospital here. He was a Kentuckian.

Tabernacle at Hopkinsville.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 27.—The new Union Tabernacle, on Seventh street, which is one of the handsomest and most commodious building of its kind in the State, was opened to the public and dedicated last evening with appropriate ceremonies by Sam Jones. The crowd in attendance is estimated at about 1,200.

Diphtheria Prevalent.

Morganfield, Ky., Sept. 30.—Diphtheria has broken out in a number of districts in the county, causing the dismissal of a number of schools. There are several cases in this city. Only one death resulted from it as yet.

Davis Dead.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 30.—Ex-Policemen William B. Davis, the slayer of Policeman R. H. West in the tragedy of September 6, died at his home in this city at 3 o'clock this afternoon. He was conscious until the last.

Do you know why Woods is selling more books than all other dealers combined? Because he is selling them a wee bit cheaper.

FRIEND OF SILVER.

A Letter From President Cleveland Upon the Financial Question, He Favors Silver Within Such Limits As It Can Be Safely Used.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 27.—The Constitution to-morrow will print a letter from President Cleveland to Gov. Northern, in which the President states his position on the financial question at length. The letter in his reply to one written by Gov. Northern on the 15th inst. The Governor refuses to give his letter out for publication, but it is known that it presents a graphic description of the political situation in Georgia and the South and urged upon the President the expediency of a public utterance from him more comprehensive than his recent message as to the proper policy to be pursued by Congress upon questions affecting the stringency of the times and the needs of the people. It is understood that in his letter Gov. Northern pointed out inroads being made in the Democratic ranks by the Populists by reason of the neglect or delay on the part of the Democratic majority in Congress to enact legislation on the line of the party platform and pledges. He dwelt specially upon the financial condition and political unrest of the farmers of the South, who constitute so great a proportion of the Democracy.

The President's reply to that letter was received this evening, and is as follows:

Executive Mansion, Washington, Sept. 25.—Hon. W. J. Northern—My Dear Sir: I hardly know how to reply your letter of the 15th inst. It seems to me that I am quite plainly on record concerning the financial question. My letter accepting the nomination to the Presidency when read in connection with the message lately sent to Congress in extraordinary session appears to me to very explicit. I want a currency that is stable and safe in the hands of our people. I will not knowingly be implicated in a condition that will justly make me in the least degree answerable to any laborer or farmer in the United States for a shrinkage in the purchasing power of the dollar he has received for a full dollar's worth of production on his soil. I not only want our currency to be of such a character that all kinds of dollars will have equal purchasing power at home, but I want it to be of such a character as will demonstrate abroad our wisdom and good faith, thus placing upon a firm foundation our credit among the nations of the earth. I want our financial conditions and the laws relating to our currency safe and reassuring that those who have money will spend and invest it in business and new enterprises instead of hoarding it. You can not cure fright by calling it foolish and unreasonable, and can not prevent the frightened man from hoarding his money. I want good, sound and stable money, and a condition of confidence that will keep it in use.

Within the limits of what I have written, I am a friend of silver, but I believe its proper place in our currency can only be fixed by a readjustment of our currency legislation and the inauguration of a consistent and comprehensive scheme. I think such a scheme can only be entered upon profitably and hopefully after the repeal of the law which is charged with all our financial woes. In the present state of public mind, this law can not be built upon nor patched in such a way as to relieve the situation.

ON ONE SCAFFOLD.

Five Murderers Executed In Public at Mt. Vernon, Georgia

Three Killed a Merchant, the Fourth a Child and the Fifth a Companion.

Mt. Vernon, Ga., Sept. 29.—Five murderers were executed upon one scaffold at this place at 2:05 p. m. today. They were Hiram Jacobs, Hiram Brewington, Lucien Manuel, Purse Strickland and Weldon Gordon. All were commonly called negroes, but the first four named were descendants of the Crowatan Indians of North Carolina, and locally were known as "Scuffletions," from the name of the community from which they came. Three of them murdered Alexander Peterson, a rich merchant, last July, the fourth killed a five-year-old child and the fifth murdered a negro companion.

Over ten thousand people, white and black, witnessed the executions. Every incoming train deposited its load of human freight and steamboats on the Oconee and Attamaha rivers ran a daily schedule. Thousands of women viewed the spectacle without a shudder.

The condemned men spent their last night on earth without any perceptible dread. This morning in the jail several colored ministers offered prayer for their spiritual salvation, exhorting them to be firm and courageous. At 1:30 p. m. the march to the scaffold was begun. The sheriff and prisoners were seated in a hack surrounded by a score of armed guards. They were requested to make a statement if they desired.

Manuel said: "I have every reason to believe that I am going to meet the angels above. I fear nothing, my sins are forgiven and I shall go to heaven. I tell you my friends, to put your trust in God—good-bye." The others followed in the same strain. Strickland shed tears, while the vast throng sang, "A Charge to Keep I Have." The Rev. Mr. Rose, a colored minister, prayed fervently. Then Sheriff Dunham adjusted the black caps and a photographer took their pictures. At this moment Sheriff Dunham bid them farewell, shaking each other by the hand, saying: "May God have mercy on your souls."

At 2:05 p. m. the trap was sprung. There were no signs of a struggle, and the bodies hung straight and motionless. Half an hour later the bodies were cut down and deposited in pine coffins.

LOOK HERE.

Parties owing us for coal and hauling, please call and settle at once, we need the money. On and after Sept. 1st, all coal orders must be accompanied by the money for same. Owing to the small profit we make, we can't afford to run around to collect. We have to pay cash for coal and we must have cash when we sell.

Yours Truly,
Duvall & Hurley.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhoea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks County, Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Moore & Co.

Invades the White House, Intending to Assassinate Cleveland.

Washington, Sept. 28.—This morning shortly before 11 o'clock a white man about twenty-eight years of age in some unexplained way, found his way into the lower regions of the White House, and meeting the colored cook, said: "I want to see father." "Who is your father?" the cook asked, "Mr. Cleveland," of course, was the response. He was arrested by a policeman. The man gave the name of Joseph Washington. He is a crank, and at the watch box had a wrestle with the officer for possession of the latter's mace, saying he was dissatisfied with the President's manner of filling his chair and intended to kill him.

THE HUMAN JUMBO.

Five Hundred Feet of Lumber Used in the Coffin For Geo. Walker.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 28.—Rhode Island's champion fat man, George Walker, who died in the village of Rockland, Scituate, Monday, was buried today. He was forty-two years old, weighed 513 pounds and measured seventy-two inches around the waist. The casket and box to hold the body were made to order and 500 feet of lumber were consumed in their manufacture. The pillow for the head and shoulders required half a bale of excelsior. The coffin is seven feet five inches long, three feet seven inches wide and twenty-eight and one half inches deep. Walker's widow weighs less than 100 pounds.

The Crittenden Press

ISSUED WEEKLY.

R. C. WALKER, Publisher.

F. M. Clement is the Democratic nominee for the Legislature. He will appreciate your vote and influence.

We are authorized to announce ISAAC LINLEY a candidate for the Legislature, to represent Crittenden and Livingston counties in the next General Assembly of Kentucky. Election November 1893.

FOR THE SENATE.

We are authorized to announce S. O. NUNN a candidate for the State Senate in the district composed of the counties of Crittenden, Caldwell and Webster, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce MISS MINA WHEELER a candidate for Superintendent of the Public Schools of Crittenden County. She will appreciate your vote and influence.

If a man taxes himself a $1,000 to buy a farm; and invests his money in a farm worth a $1,000, he certainly is not poorer with the farm than with the money. His condition in the one instance is as good as his situation in the other. If he needs the farm more than he needs the money, the exchange has been to his advantage.

What is true of the man and the farm is true of a community and a school. Marion needs a school, she has money and is simply able to exchange the money for the school, if each man will furnish his pro rata of the money. The fairest and the squarest way to proportion the expense among ourselves is to vote a tax, and have each man pay according to his ability. The richer man the more dollars, the poorer man the fewer dollars, and the man who has not been fortunate enough to accumulate any of this world's goods, only a poll-tax. The richer man is not burdened because he has plenty to pay with, and the poor man need not groan because he is not charged much. Each makes his small investment towards benefitting the community in which we all live, and which we all desire to see prosper, because it is ours. This tax is not to be levied to make a present to some potentate, nor subsidize some corporation, nor to pay for the pyrotechnics of some shake-down that will be forgotten before frost. It is for a solid institution, one that will add to the business of the town and to the character of the community. Its benefits will be set before every man. Let us get together in this matter, and give Marion a long push up the hill of prosperity.

The little strike on the O. V. is worrying Marion to a considerable extent, even when the freight trains only are suspended. Five years of experience has convinced the village that railroads are pretty convenient things, even if this is the first year we have had an opportunity to pay off some of these railroad bonds. While we have not paid the tax with black berries, if the inconveniences of the strike are not shortly dispensed with, we will like painting the road with our abundant stock of carmine polka-ries.

The Attorney General of the State thinks that the law about opening saloons on election day means the entire twenty-four hours of that day, beginning at 12 o'clock the night before, others claim that it means only the hours during which the polls are open. The matter has been submitted to the Court of Appeals, and you may safely wager a nickel against three drops of election day cider, that there are not a few people interested in the decision.

By all means read what the highest school official in the State says of graded schools. Superintendent Thompson is a man of experience in school affairs. Chosen by the people to preside over the school system of the State, he has made our public schools a study, he knows the weak and strong places; there is nothing to warp his judgement, and when his knowledge is the practical kind, his opinion should have weight with the men who earnestly desire to make our school a success.

According to the latest returns only thirteen members of the last Legislature have their baggage checked for the next House. About forty were candidates for re-nomination, hence twenty-seven have already fallen by the wayside.

Dodie Goss built better than she knew, when she frizzed the night powder with a load of squirrel shot. Since the consumption of the happy event, burglarizing has grown beautifully less in Marion.

Madeline Pollard has betaken herself to a home for fallen women. If Mandy had gone there a few years earlier, affairs would have been in a better shape.

The Court of Claims continues to spend money. It money is not to spend what left for?

Yellow fever is increasing at Brunswick, Ga.

Joint debates appear to be things of the past in Crittenden county politics.

County Judge Moore made a pretty strong plea for an increase in salary, but the magistrates were inexorable. There is no question but what the work of the County Judge is much greater now than a few years ago.

Kentucky may think that her convicts are troublesome, but Tennessee has paid out $213,000 for guarding her stripes in the coal mining region of the State.

The recent Court of Claims was not a stinging tribunal after all; neither was it an extravagant one. When a necessity was apparent, the magistrates recognized it and provided for it. Marion has no big manufacturing establishments, and is not likely to have any soon, but a real good school will add to the town and to the county as much life as a factory. We can get the latter by our own effort; why not do it?

Crittenden people are going to the World's Fair by the dozens. The truth is we are getting in touch with the world, and we keep right on improving, the end of the next four hundred years will find a few passable winter roads in the county.

THE O. V. STRIKE.

No Freight Trains Running.

No freight trains are doing business on the O. V. This department of the road has been suspended since Sunday night. The train men had been notified of a reduction of 10 per cent in their wages, beginning Oct. 1. They quit work.

Yesterday's Henderson Journal said:

The O. V. strike still continues with no apparent yielding on the part of men or company. All freight trains between Evansville and Princeton are tied up.

Early yesterday morning Sheriff Jno. E. Hickman and a number of deputies were called upon by the company to guard the company's goods. These officers went out and remained awhile, but as all was quiet, returned soon after.

Yesterday morning the company made an attempt to unload the stock which has been in the cars several days without any food and water, but the strikers prevented. Later the strikers volunteered themselves to unload the stock and the proposition was expected. The stock was taken out at the pens and turned into Col. Winstead's distillery yard. There were none dead but some very weak, some having fallen down and being trampled by the others.

No train was attempted to be moved from this place yesterday, but a freight started from Princeton. It was stopped by the O. V. strikers, and the broken-on run away from the train. The train was set out at Sturgis, and the engine and endoose brought into Henderson.

Men were taken to Evansville yesterday to work as brakemen, but we have not heard of such result.

The south-bound O. V. passenger came in very late last night, it is inferred, from some reason connected with the strike.

All of the yard switch board keys have been taken out of the yard tracks by the strikers.

A DESTRUCTIVE STORM.

Hundreds of Lives Lost in Louisiana and Alabama.

New Orleans, Oct. 3.—A terrible storm struck New Orleans late Sunday night, coming from the northeast, and raged here all night and part of yesterday, sweeping to the South from here along the line of the Mississippi river, through the parish of Plaquemine to the Gulf.

The storm was one of the worst which ever visited this part of the country, and as far as can be learned,

New Orleans, Oct. 3.—The storm of yesterday has passed, and although the wires are still down, life of intelligence continues to come from various places, which impart the information that the loss of life, to say nothing of the destruction of property, is tremendous.

From Bayou Cook, the great oyster field, which leads to the Gulf, it is reported that the settlements have been completely demolished and that the loss of life has reached the appalling figure of 200.

The news from the low land of Alabama indicates that the loss of life in that section is great.

CALDWELL COUNTY NEWS.

Law Suits Filed—A Justifiable Killing.

[From the Banner.]

More than half a dozen law suits have been filed in the circuit clerk's office in the past week. The most important action is that of H. M. Jones and others vs C. W. Metcalfe and others. The petition states that the plaintiffs endorsed for the defendants in the Citizens Bank of Princeton for $6000. They paid the debt after the bank had got judgment, which had been transferred to them. The suit is to secure sale of the property of the defendant at the crossing of the Cadiz road and the C. O. and S. W. railroad.

Mrs. Fannie Malone sues Harvey Malone for a divorce. She alleges that they were married in 1891, and that the defendant abandoned her without fault on her part and has failed and refused to live with or provide for her. She asks for an absolute divorce.

The examining trial of John Torian for the killing of John Standard was held at the court-house Saturday afternoon. The evidence was the same as that adduced at the coroner's inquest, and was to the effect that Stan had been trying to shoot Torian, but he latter had the better pistol and got a shot first and saved his own life by taking Standard's. Torian was dismissed without day.

MURDER AT PADUCAH.

Yesterday Morning Murray Gilbert Shoots and Kills Gilber Smith.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 3.—This morning at 2:30 o'clock on West Court Murray Gilbert, the third son of Judge I. C. Gilbert, shot and killed Calvin Smith, a policeman.

The weapon used was a Winchester rifle, and Smith was shot in the back near the shoulder blade. The ball passed entirely through him. Smith died but ten minutes.

About 1 o'clock Smith and Policeman Seaman had arrested Gilbert for flouting a pistol while intoxicated in a disreputable house in the immediate locality of the shooting.

When taken to the station the captain of the night force disarmed Gilbert and told him to go home. He refused to do so, saying he had it in for the policeman.

Smith leaves a wife and mother, the latter at McKenzie, Tenn., whence he came.

People Party Meeting.

The committee of the Peoples Party will meet in Marion on Monday, Oct. 9th (County Court). A full meeting of the committee are requested, as there will be important business to transact.

There never has been a happier time in the history of the People's Party for a general revival of interest and enthusiasm.

The rank and file of the Republican party are at sea without rudder or compass. They are disgusted and confused, ready to align themselves with right and progress.

A large portion of the Rank and file of the Democratic party are disgusted and humiliated at the disgraceful scramble for spoils now going on among its leaders. They were told from every Democratic stump in the south and west that if the Democratic party should be placed in control of the Government, free silver and reduction of taxation should be forthcoming at once. They are now confronted with a gold bug administration trying to repeal the last vestige of law that recognizes silver, and doing the bidding of Wall street at every turn.

The wandering Jew is no longer wandering. He has found Cleveland and now thinks he has the world by the tail with a gold grip.

B. C. Keys will be with us at our next meeting. Come every body.

W. H. Brown, Chairman.

CANARY BIRDS.

The different varieties of canaries are in rapid increase in popularity. About three hundred and fifty years ago a ship, returning from the islands in the Atlantic which people then called the Fortunata Islands, but which were undoubtedly the Canaries, went ashore on the coast of Italy, near Leghorn. A cage of beautiful birds captured in those islands, was broken and the birds were set free. Their song was so charming that they were captured and taken to Leghorn. They were sold in cages, and gave rise to a traffic which soon completely cleared the island of Elba of "canary birds," so that not one was left there in a wild state.

From that time the history of the canary bird has been a record of personal imprisonment and of the transference of his appearance and character. He has become what we may well call an artificial bird. Every nation of Europe has produced a variety of a special type.

In their natural state, as they still exist in the Canary and Madeira and other Atlantic islands, the birds are of a grayish green or greenish brown color, and are not remarkable for beauty, but they are such excellent singers that they have been known to burst the membranes of their throat in pouring forth their song.

Some of them which are entirely new, and then birds are taken in a wild state in these islands and sold for great prices in Europe or America. But the ordinary canary of commerce is the offspring of captive stock, and has been greatly modified by breeding. Canaries, moreover, have been crossed with finches, larks and other birds, until their real race is uncertain.

Canaries are now known as "German," "French," "Belgian," "Tyrolean," and so on according to the forms and colors that have been produced in them. The Belgian canaries are sometimes eight inches long—the wild canary is never more than five—and are remarkable for the elegance of their form and their rich orange color.

French canaries are light in color. Some of them which are entirely new, and then birds are taken in a wild state in these islands and sold for great prices in Europe or America. But the ordinary canary of commerce is the offspring of captive stock, and has been greatly modified by breeding. Canaries, moreover, have been crossed with finches, larks and other birds, until their real race is uncertain.

For hundreds of these Tyrolean singers a fearful fate is reserved. They are sold to gin shopkeepers in England, who keep them suspended above their bars to make their places "cheerful" and attract custom. In the atmosphere of such a den the birds languish and die before many months or years, and another is purchased to take its place.

The "English" bird, so called, is not remarkable for song, but for plumage. To be esteemed highly, it must have a head and body of bright orange, while its wings and tail must be black. A single "wrong" feather will diminish the value of the bird.

Exhibitions of canaries are regularly held in systematic places. London, and no canary has a chance of winning a prize unless it is properly marked with black wings and tail. The production of such a bird is a great art among breeders, and is attained only by infinite care.

Many books have been written about the canary, and several cases in which birds have been taught to "talk" have been recorded. In all these cases, it is fair to suppose, the talking is more or less inarticulate, and requires to be helped out with the imagination of the listener.

A bird in London, named Titche, which had been neglected from its hatching by its parents, and was reared entirely by human care, was taught to utter a succession of sounds in which people heard the words, "canary, canary, canary."

"Dear, sweet Titche, kiss Minnie, kiss! kiss! kiss!"

The same bird was taught to whistle clearly the first three bars of "Swiss Song." This, though an annual accomplishment, is not extremely rare in canaries, finches, larks and other birds—Youth's Companion.

HOW FROGS HIBERNATE.

The state of our cold-blooded friends as to their condition during the winter season, our cold-blooded friends pass the time in a comfortable way, in a state of torpor called hibernation.

The place selected seems anything but comfortable—a tomb in the mud in the margin or bottom of a pond. Hibernation is a state of entire or partial torpor. It seems like sleep, but is greatly to be distinguished from it. In torpor, the breathing, circulation of the blood, digestion, are almost entirely stopped; but in sleep these all go on. The frog is sustained, when he ceases to eat, by the fat stored inside his body for that purpose. This is another method for meeting privation which our amphibious friends share with the camel, whose humps are little else but stores of fat.

As to diet, the general rule is that frogs eat, or are eaten by, almost everything. Slugs, water-bugs, grasshoppers, and other insects are especially relished. There is a peculiar arrangement for catching insects. The tongue is hung by the outer instead of the inner end, so as to flap forward and back in a flash, and entrap its prey.

It happens that insects, curiously enough, disappear for the winter and reappear in the spring at just the time when the frogs hibernate and come out again. The frogs' indulgence also in small fish, field-mice and sticklebacks. They will often eat their own tadpoles. While in captivity they learn to eat almost any food given them.—St. Nicholas.

THE NEEDFUL THING.

What the Superintendent of Public Instruction Has To Say of Free Graded Schools.

Recently a citizen of Marion wrote to Hon. Ed Porter Thompson, Superintendent of Public Instruction, asking him about the advantages of a Free Graded School, such as there is now being an effort made to establish at Marion. That official promptly forwarded the following in reply:

"In the present condition of our schools your people could take no more important step than they are now contemplating; namely, the establishment of a Graded Free school.

For many years a kind of insanity has possessed our people, which leads them to attach undue importance to mere sound and show, and to lose sight of the fact that a smattering of everything amounts to the knowing of nothing. The consequence has been that our common school curriculum is so long that for one teacher in his little school-house to undertake to teach children, by going through a form of 'hearing lessons' in eleven different branches, is a most admirable scheme for promoting feeble-mindedness. The remedy lies in the direction which you indicate, that of establishing a Graded Free School in every community. In Graded Free School two teachers can do three times as much work as one, owing to a proper division of labor, and so on for any number required.

I most heartily wish you success, and am always glad to give an encouraging word to any community that is so enlightened and awake to the importance of a thorough discipline of the young as to take steps to establish these schools." Yours truly, Ed Porter Thompson.

A REFUGEE RETURNS.

Joe Johnson Accompanies the Deputy Sheriff of Pope County to Marion.

Several weeks ago the Press published an account of the fleet footed Joe Johnson, of Hurricane island, and his successful escape from the clutches of Constable Jacobs. Johnson was accused of increasing his wardrobe materially from the effects of his dead employer, Thos. Simpson, the Hurricane island farmer. When the Constable went after him, Jim run; he run until his hat, boots and coat came off and when last seen was still laying aside the things that do best a racer. He has been in Pope county, Ill., since then; Sheriff Franks located him, and notified the officers of Pope county. Last Monday Deputy Sheriff Oscar Myers, of Pope county, turned Johnson over to the officers of Marion, and he now languishes in jail, where, if he fails to fill a $400 bond, he will remain until Circuit Court, before which he must appear and answer the charge of grand larceny. Johnson shows an ugly scar on the calf of his leg, and says a bullet from constable Jacobs' pistol made it.

Run From An Officer.

Monday Gus Graves, of Dycusburg, had a little unpleasant matter to adjust with county Judge Moore. Some week ago, Gus was wanted as a witness in the Benton case at Marion. The summons was given to an officer to execute. When the officer drew nigh to execute it, Gus skipped, and the result was the court issued an attachment which made Gus appear as a witness, and at the same time he was called upon to answer for treating the court with contempt. The matter was adjourned by the witness paying the cost of attachment, the court foregoing its authority to assess a fine.

A Pastor Returned.

Rev. W. T. Dunn returned from the Annual Conference at Hardinburg of the M. E. church Saturday and will remain with his churches in this and Caldwell county another year. He probably has the pastoral care of more churches than any other minister in this section. His charges are Wilson's Chapel, Green's Chapel, Bethel, Bethany, Union and Popular Valley. To make the entire circuit he has to travel a hundred miles, and it must all be done horse back. He is in the Greenville District, and the Presiding Elder is Rev. D. F. Kerr.

Bill Taylor Gone.

Bill Taylor, colored, belonged to the chain gang, Thursday he was sent with a teamster to get a load of brick, the teamster returned in due time, but Bill is still gone, and the citizens of Marion will pay a decent reward for a guarantee that he will never return. When here he is generally in jail at the expense of the county, hence his permanent location elsewhere will be regarded as a public blessing.

Jose Boyd Dead.

Jose J. Boyd, an old and well known citizen of the Sheridan neighborhood, died Friday night. He moved from Livingston county to this several years ago, and has always been known as an industrious, honest man and a good citizen. Peace to his ashes.

A CHEAP RATE.

On 6, 7 and 8 the rate to Chicago and return from Marion is $10.

CHURCH MATTERS.

A Noted Evangelist Coming To Marion in November.

Rev. W. M. Robeson, a noted evangelist, of Morriston, Ark., will begin a protracted meeting at the C. P. church at Marion, on the 3rd Sunday of November. He has the reputation of being a fine preacher, and a splendid revivalist and the church here is looking for a great meeting.

Rev. Jaa. Price was engaged in a protracted meeting at Needmore last week. There were five professions.

The Princeton Presbytery is in session at Weston this week.

Rev. W. R. Gibbs is assisting Rev. J. J. Franks, in a meeting at Dunn Springs this week.

Rev. Wm. Gregston has an intercession meeting at Cooksylvie.

Rev. W. R. Gibbs and J. F. Price held an interesting meeting at Franks last week. Six conversions.

Revs. Roney and Baird, of Fulton, are holding a meeting at Deer Creek.

A Missing Husband.

The Evansville Courier of Sunday printed the following:

"Officer Neal Server yesterday received a letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, dated at Weston, Ky., Sep. 29. She stated that last Monday her husband, J. L. Hughes, left Weston for Evansville with some stock, and that she had not seen or heard anything of him since. When he left he said he was coming to this city and that he would return home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Hughes is very uneasy about her husband and fears that he has taken ill, and requested the officer, that in case anything had occurred to the missing man to have him properly cared for and notify her."

Late reports from Weston are to the effect that Mr. Hughes turned up all right and is now at home.

Holiness Meeting.

In this section of the state what are known as Holiness or Sanctified meetings are becoming quite frequent. One has been in progress at the Methodist church at this place for a week. The exhortors Jackson Millican and W. J. Hill have been the chief leaders at this place. There are several other persons who profess Sanctification, and the objects of the meeting is to afford church members an opportunity to get what they call "the second blessing." The doctrine has a pretty strong hold in the county. At Hurricane this doctrine is the chief feature of the camp-meeting, and at that church the meetings, church members, seeking the second blessing, are invited to the anxious seat.

A similar meeting was closed at Blackford last week, after running for several days. During the meeting several divisions were made to the sanctified believers.

Town Election.

Under the new charter the election of town officers, including Trustees, Police Judge and Marshal, will take place at the regular county election—Tuesday after the first Monday in November. Marion has all of these officers to elect at the coming election, and the newly elected officers enter upon the discharge of the duties of their office Jan. 1, 1894. The Trustees hold office two years, the Police Judge and Marshal four years. The town is required to provide separate ballot boxes for the town election.

Nice Stock.

Crittenden county had some nice stock at the Caldwell fair. R. H. Kemp's Canterbury Chief, is a fine all purpose stallion. Mr. Kemp recently brought him from another county, and his importation is a valuable addition to the county's stock.

Daniel McDowell had a pair of handsome bay roadsters that elicited the admiration of everybody. They are beauties.

Fled to Wed.

On Sunday night of last week, Mr. Ham Vinson and Miss Minnie Crowell of Tradewater neighborhood, overcame the paternal objections to their marriage by going without the knowledge or consent, of Ned Crowell, the girl's father, to Nashville, where their happy hearts were united according to the forms of law. The Press extends congratulations.

Fight at Dycusburg.

At Dycusburg a few days ago, Sam Watson, a good farmer of that section and Obe Simmons, a citizen of the town, proceeded to adjust some differences with their fists. Watson was severely bruised about the head, but nothing serious was entailed.

A Scrap.

Monday Sherman Woodall came to town and surrendered to the officers. On Saturday, he and Wyatt McNeely while at Crayneville, disagreed about certain affairs, hot words followed thick and fast, and then blows fell pretty lively for a season. McNeely it is said was considerably bruised.

Chateaux Circle.

An effort is being made to organize a Chateaux Literary and Scientific Circle in Marion to take the regular course of study and reading this winter. If you want to join the circle, or desire other information, call on Rev. J.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

The Magistrates Meet, Confer and Enact.

The County Levy 25 cents Ad valorem, $1.50 Poll.

Pursuant to the law the court of claims convened at Marion Monday. The inclement weather kept some of the magistrates at home, but there were enough on hand to do the work, and they proceeded to business in a business way.

A sum not exceeding $1800 was appropriated for building an iron bridge across Livingston creek, near Dycusburg. Theo. Vosier and S. H. Cassidy were appointed commissioners to confer with Lyon county in reference to the matter. $100 was appropriated to make the approaches; the bridge is to be built 200 feet up the creek from present bridge.

P. S. Maxwell allowed $13.00 for services as poor-house and bridge commissioner.

A sum sufficient for fencing the Piney road as changed upon motion of L. H. Paris was allowed.

W. E. Brown allowed $18.00 for building bridge.

Meers. Jaa. M. Wilson, D. A. Flannery, F. D. Butler and A. B. Hodge were released from paying poll-tax.

The price for plow and team on road for the ensuing year was fixed at $1.50 per day.

J. W. Crawford allowed $15.00 for medical attention to prisoners.

The following pauper idiots were allowed $20.00 each to assist in maintaining them:

Angeline Holeman, Chas. Davenport, F. J. Holloman, S. J. Jones, Jno. Behout, Kate Moore and Mary Travis.

J. T. Franks, sheriff, was allowed $75.00 for serving road orders.

J. D. Hughes and Willie Lucas were released from road work.

Jno King allowed $25.00 for bridge.

$25.00 was appropriated for blasting rock on road near G. D. Kemp's.

S. D. Flannery asked the court to appropriate a scraper for his section of the public road. The court declined.

A sum not exceeding $300 was appropriated for painting the court-house.

D. Woods, County Clerk, was allowed $108.06 for crossing indexing.

Marion Bank allowed $15.00 for cashing 1883 school drafts.

Ordered that the County Judge and Attorney rent out old clerk office building.

Ordered that all old delinquent county tax list up to A. L. Cruce's term, be destroyed.

Ordered that Pat Woodsides be released from poll-tax.

Ordered that a sum not exceeding $300 be appropriated for bridge over Deer Creek, at Bettisford, and J. W. Ainsworth was appointed commissioner to borrow the money and have the bridge built.

R. C. Lucas and J. H. Aarons asked to be released from poll-tax. Refused.

Dr. C. G. Moreland released from road work.

Ordered that the salary of the County Superintendent for the year ending Sept. 1894, be and the same is fixed at 10cts on each child reported in school age.

Ordered that the County Judge and County Attorney let the keeping of the paupers, for next year, to lowest bidder.

R. W. Taylor was appointed Supt. of poor-house at a salary of $12 per annum.

J. W. Adams, claim as Jailer, amounting to $436.90, was allowed.

D. Wood's, County Clerk, claim of $219.50 was allowed.

J. C. James allowed $25 for repairing public road.

Yesterday, when the time for considering the salary of the county attorney came, Attorney Blue made a statement to the court and said that he would be satisfied with the old amount $500.

Squire Myers moved that it be fixed at $600.

Squire Taylor made a motion that it be $300. Upon a vote a proposition, there was but one say.

Judge Moore vacated the chair and Squire Vosier presided while the salary of the county Judge was discussed.

Judge Moore stated that the work of the office had been increased, the population was greater; the legislature had cut down the fees and increased the work of the County Judge. He now had to try all misdemeanor cases most of which were heretofore in the circuit court, and there was a great deal of this work for which he got no pay, then he had to hold examining trials, and for this he got no fees. It required all the time of a County Judge at his office, and as the fee amounted to so little, he felt that $500 was not enough, he did not conscientiously think it was a reasonable remuneration.

Squire Myers moved that the county Judge's salary be fixed at $500.

Squire Taylor said $550 but got no second to his motion, and Myers' motion carried unanimously.

Upon motion of Squire Vosier the county levy was fixed at 25 cents ad valorem, and $1.50 poll tax.

An ad valorem tax of 15 cents was levied upon Marion products to pay the fall.

Nose and Nose.

The race of the Princeton fair was the mile dash, and the contest was between a Madisonville horse belonging to McFerran Bros, and the horse of Mr. C. E. Dow, of this place. The first time the flyers came under the wire nose and nose. It was a dead heat. In getting ready to run the race over, Dow's horse could not be controlled and ran twice around the track, and as he passed under the string—the last time, somebody called out "go," and the two drew around again. The next day McFerran's horse won by a half a neck. Dow has a good horse, and had been in trim and under control of the rider, would have won the race, or made the other horse run a little faster than he ever run before.
